

Partner with the Columbia Medical Society and receive exclusive opportunities to promote your company products and services.

Learn how partnering with the Columbia Medical Society (CMS) can benefit and grow your business. The exciting options give you an opportunity to choose what is most comfortable and sustainable for your company.

CORPORATE FRIENDS

The Columbia Medical Society Corporate Friends Program offers businesses an opportunity annually to demonstrate their support for the Society by participating at one of the sponsorship levels. In exchange for their support and based on their level participation, these companies receive exclusive opportunities to meet face-to-face with Society members and share information about their products and services. These companies are also given special recognition at all meetings and on the CMS website. Participation in the program is by application only and is subject to approval by the Society's Executive Committee. * Participation is for a period of one year.
